

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Economic Development and Livelihoods

The Somalia Stability Fund (SSF) is a multi-donor fund supporting peace and stability in Somalia. SSF has set aside funds to cover eligible payment under a contract for Economic Development and Livelihoods. SSF seeks to address the drivers of conflict by providing socio-economic opportunities for youth in targeted areas, particularly geographical areas that are marginalized. Accordingly, SSF commissioned the “Youth Employment, Human Capital and Private Sector Development” Options Paper to guide SSF programming under its conflict prevention and management pillar. Under this pillar, SSF aims to address the drivers of conflict and instability through economic development interventions which target young men and women, including those from marginalised groups who are vulnerable to recruitment into armed or extremist groups or piracy.

The bidding process is open to all eligible bidders who meet the qualification criteria. General details relating to the project are highlighted below:
